

BOOK ORDER FORM

Dear Parents,

Sponsored by Avona PTA, award winning, author/illustrator, Chris Soentpiet (SOON-peat) will be visiting Avona Elementary School to give an exciting program for the entire school on Friday, March 3, 2006. Books will be available for students to purchase. They will be personally autographed by Mr. Soentpiet. To purchase a book(s), complete this form, attach cash or check and return to the classroom teacher by Friday, February 17th, 2006.

STUDENT'S NAME: _____ AUTOGRAPH BOOK TO: _____

TEACHER'S NAME: _____ CLASS: _____ AMOUNT ENCLOSED: $ _____

PLEASE INDICATE WITH A NUMBER (1,2...) THE BOOK(S) YOU ARE INTERESTED IN PURCHASING. TELEPHONE # MUST BE WRITTEN ON CHECK. MAKE ALL CHECKS PAYABLE TO: CHRIS SOENTPIET

1st choice may NOT be available, indicate a 2nd choice. All books are hardcover unless otherwise indicated.

 The Last Dragon <input type="checkbox"/> $16 <input type="checkbox"/> $7 paperback Peter discovers friendship and brings an old dragon to life.	 Something Beautiful <input type="checkbox"/> $17 <input type="checkbox"/> $7 paperback A little girl searches for the meaning of the word BEAUTIFUL.	 Around Town <input type="checkbox"/> $17 A joyful celebration of community and city life. This book will delight children.
So Far from the Sea <input type="checkbox"/> $16 Laura and her family pay respect to those interned during WWII. 	Peacebound Trains <input type="checkbox"/> $15 <input type="checkbox"/> $6 paperback A picture/chapter book based on family memories about the trauma of leaving a beloved home for fear of an invading army. 	Silver Packages <input type="checkbox"/> $17 A boy waits for a special gift that will guide him to the real meaning of Christmas. Based on a true story.
 My Brother Martin <input type="checkbox"/> $18 <input type="checkbox"/> $7 paperback The childhood story of Martin Luther King Jr as told by his sister, Christine King.	More Than Anything Else <input type="checkbox"/> $16 Nine year old Booker T. Washington's labors from dawn till dusk. His intense desire is to learn to read and write. 	 Jin Woo <input type="checkbox"/> $16 The new adopted baby is getting all the attention. But a surprise helps David understand that being a brother means surrounded by more love than ever.
Dear Santa, Please Come to the 19th Floor <input type="checkbox"/> $18 Santa makes his way up to the nineteenth floor which has no chimney-no matter how difficult Santa will be sure to please. 	Where is Grandpa? <input type="checkbox"/> $16 <input type="checkbox"/> $7 paperback This question haunts a boy on the day his grandfather dies. It is the special memories that help keep grandpa close to his heart. 	Momma, Where Are You From? <input type="checkbox"/> $17 Told in poetic detail, here is one mother's unforgettable reply to her daughter's question about her childhood.
 Coolies <input type="checkbox"/> $17 <input type="checkbox"/> $8 paperback Inspired by actual events in the history of the American railroad while it celebrates the loyalty between two brothers. Parents' Choice Gold Award 2001	 Molly Bannaky <input type="checkbox"/> $17 A lone woman during the 1680s stake out a new country, America. And one day she had the pleasure of writing her famous grandson's name in the bible whom she taught to read and write.	 Saturdays and Teacakes <input type="checkbox"/> $17 A boy can't wait for Saturday to spend time with Grandma.

For information on Chris Soentpiet's books and awards visit www.soentpiet.com